1 Hi everyone!

5 My name is Buddy. Let’s talk about screen time! Do you know what screen time is? Do you like playing video games? Do you like watching TV? The amount of time you use on a TV or computer is called screen time! Do you like playing outside? Do you like talking with friends?

Watching TV and playing video games for a long time is not good for your body. Exercise is good for your body. Do you know what exercise is? I’ll tell you! I like to dance. I like to play soccer. I like to ride a bike. Exercise makes me feel strong!

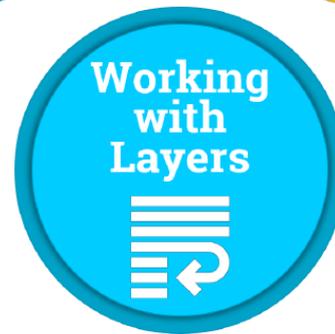

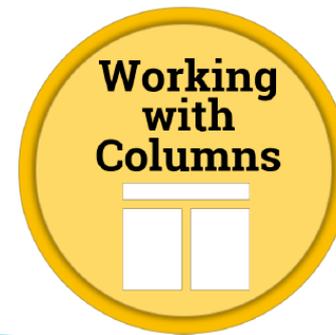

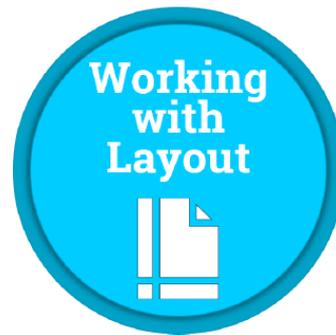

It is not healthy to look at a computer or TV screen for a long time. My friends and I like to play tag and jump rope. Exercise makes our heart happy! I love to get up and move my body.

When I stare at a computer or TV screen for a long time, my eyes hurt! Sometimes, my head hurts too! Even looking at my mom’s phone for a long time can make me feel sick. Remember kids, taking care of your body is important! Let’s practice balance! Do you know what balance is? I’ll give you an example. If you play video games for an hour then go play at the park for an hour! This will make your body feel great. Well, I am off to play basketball with my friends! Talk to you later!

Cyberbullying Lesson

Today's Date

Hi my friends! It's Buddy and I am so happy you're here! Isn't it nice having friends? You can always count on friends to have your back. Sadly, some people aren't so nice. Do you know what cyber bullies are? Hopefully, you have never dealt with one yourself! It is important to know who they are so we can stand up to them safely.

Cyber bullies are people who harass others online. Harass is just a fancy word for someone who is mean to others. It is important to treat everyone online with respect. Still, not everyone online follows this rule.

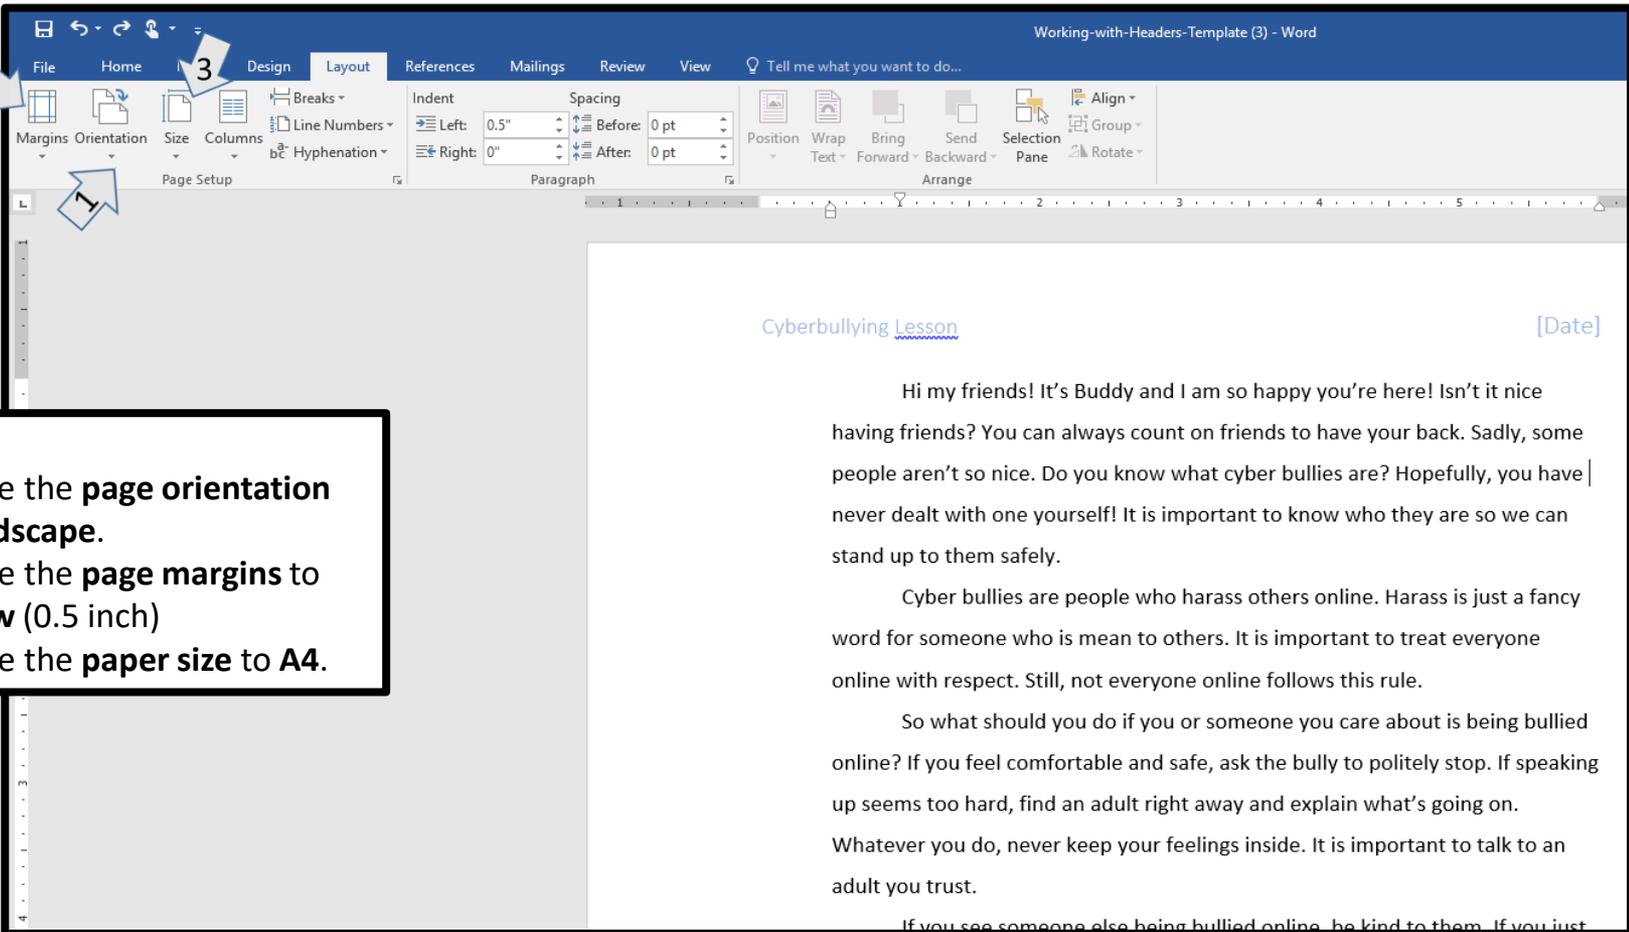

So what should you do if you or someone you care about is being bullied online? If you feel comfortable and safe, ask the bully to politely stop. If speaking up seems too hard, find an adult right away and explain what's going on. Whatever you do, never keep your feelings inside. It is important to talk to an adult you trust.

If you see someone else being bullied online, be kind to them. If you just stay quiet, things could get worse. Stop bullying in its tracks and stand up for others.

If you are being the cyber bully, talk to an adult who can help you find ways to be kinder to others. If you have hurt someone in the past, apologize. This will make everyone involved feel so much better. I am so happy we had this talk! Your pal Buddy is always here for you!

I was hoping I'd see you again! It's Sally! Just kidding, it's your old friend Buddy. You can't believe everything you hear! When you're online, sometimes it's hard to know what's real and what's fake.

A lot of things online are made-up. Some people try to trick you on purpose. So how can we tell when online news is lying? Well, it is our job to become detectives! I treat it as a fun, mystery game.

There are a couple things we can do to decide whether or not the online news source is real. First, do we trust the website? Have you heard of this website before? Ask your teacher or parents if they know of this website. Maybe they can even help you crack the case!

Next, is the website full of spelling or grammatical errors? Ask your teacher or parents to sit down with you and compare a real website to a fake website. You will be able to spot differences quickly!

Lastly, ask yourself why was this news article made? Did it leave out any important information? You may want to look at other articles and see if the details match-up. You will need help from your teacher and parents at first, but then you'll become a pro!

Hey guys! Buddy here!

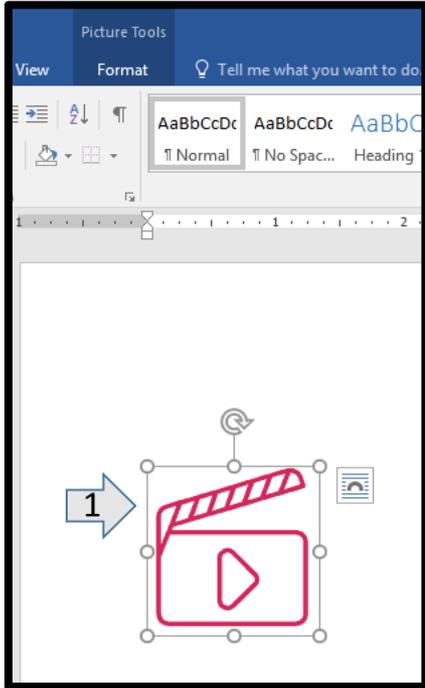

Have you ever made something really cool? Have you ever created something you were super proud of? Me too! One time I wrote an awesome poem. I gave it to my mom for her birthday and she hung it up on our refrigerator!

The next day I found out someone in my class had taken my poem when I wasn't looking. He copied my entire poem and gave it to our teacher. I was so mad when I found out. I worked so hard on my poem, but he got all the credit!

Today I want to talk to you about copyright. Do you know what copyright is? Neither did I! Copyright is a type of protection that tells other people they cannot copy your work without your permission. For example, if people want to use your work or share it with other people, they must ask you first! This way you get credit as the creator. This also means that you have total control over what people can and cannot do with your work.

Most popular songs, movies, television shows, and books are protected by copyright. This means we need to be very careful when using other people's work that we find online. If someone finds out you are using their work without permission, you could end up in big trouble! Don't worry, if you want to use someone's work, just ask the creators themselves.
